

NEW APPOINTMENTS TO THE FACULTY, 2013/14

AFRICANA STUDIES

Christina Jackson, Derrick K. Gondwe Visiting Scholar and Visiting Instructor of Africana Studies (one-two year appointment)

Ph.D.	candidate University of California, Santa Barbara
M.A.	University of California, Santa Barbara	2010
B.A.	Temple University	2007

While pursuing her master's degree at the University of California, Santa Barbara, Professor Jackson was a Teaching Assistant for undergraduate courses. In 2011-2012, she was a Frederick Douglass Teaching Fellow at Bloomsburg University. Her doctoral dissertation is entitled Black San Francisco: How a Community Fights for Space in San Francisco.

ASIAN STUDIES

Mizuki Bando, Japanese Teaching Assistant (part-time appointment)

B.A.	Kansai Gaidai University, Osaka, Japan	2013
------	--	------

Ms. Bando comes to Gettysburg College after graduating from Kansai Gaidai University in March of 2013 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Language and Communication. She worked as an English Teacher at the culture school in 2012 teaching students between five and ten years of age.

Kyle Cleveland, Visiting Associate Professor of Asian Studies (fall semester, full-time appointment)

Ph.D.	Temple University	1990
M.A.	Temple University	1986
B.A.	Missouri Southern State University	1983

Professor Cleveland is Associate Professor of Sociology and Associate Director and Study Abroad Advisor at the Institute of Contemporary Asian Studies at Temple University, Japan Campus. His dissertation is entitled The Politics of Jubilee: Ideological Drift and Organizational Schism in a Religious Sect.

BIOLOGY

Kathryn Lord, Visiting Assistant Professor of Biology (one-year appointment)

Ph.D.	University of Massachusetts	2010
M.S.	University of Massachusetts	2005
B.A.	Hampshire College	2000

Professor Lord's most recent employment was as Adjunct Professor at Canisius College in Buffalo, New York where she taught animal behavior and communication for the online degree in Anthrozoology. Her dissertation is entitled A Heterochronic Explanation for the Behaviorally Polymorphic "genus canis": A Study of the Development of Behavioral Differences in Dogs ("canis lupus familiaris") and wolves ("canis lupus lupus").

CHEMISTRY

Keneshia O. Johnson, Visiting Assistant Professor of Chemistry (one-year appointment)

Ph.D.	Howard University	2013
B.Sc.	University of the West Indies	2005

While completing her doctoral studies at Howard University in Organometallic Chemistry, Professor Johnson served as a Research Assistant and prior to that a Teaching Assistant. Her dissertation is entitled Synthesis and Evaluation of MOCVD Precursors and Their Use in the Fabrication of Thin Film Transistors.

COMPUTER SCIENCE

Ross Gore, Visiting Assistant Professor of Computer Science (one-year appointment)

Ph.D.	University of Virginia	2012
M.C.S.	University of Virginia	2007
B.S.	University of Richmond	2003

Professor Gore was a Post-Doctoral Researcher at Old Dominion University prior to accepting his position at Gettysburg. Professor Gore's dissertation is entitled Fault Localization for Exploratory Simulations and focused on automated debugging—automatic methods used to mine profiled program executions to find errors.

ECONOMICS

Sharri Byron, Visiting Assistant Professor of Economics (one-year appointment)

B.Sc.	University of the West Indies	1996
M.Sc.	University of the West Indies	2002
Ph.D.	University of Georgia at Athens	2009

Professor Byron comes to Gettysburg College after serving as Assistant Professor of Economics at Auburn University-Montgomery. Her dissertation is entitled Three Essays on Financing Public Spending in a Small Open Economy. Her current research interests include macroeconomic performance in small, open economies, recessions and health outcomes, and economic development and growth in small, open economies.

Ryan Dodd, Assistant Professor of Economics (tenure-track appointment)

Ph.D.	expected , University of Missouri	2013
B.A.	The Evergreen State College	2004

Professor Dodd has taught at Gettysburg College for two years and was the successful candidate in the tenure-track search this past year. He is completing his Ph.D. at the University of Missouri and his dissertation is entitled The Political Economy of Inequality: The United States, 1979-2009.

Arian (Ari) Farshbaf Yazdandoust, Visiting Assistant Professor of Economics (one-year appointment)

Ph.D.	University of Southern California	2012
M.S.	University of Southern California	2012
B.A.	Bogaziçi University, Istanbul, Turkey	2001

Prior to joining the Economics faculty at Gettysburg College, Professor Farshbaf taught as Visiting Assistant Professor of Economics and Finance at the Gore School of Business, Westminster College. In addition to English, he is fluent in Persian and Turkish. His dissertation is entitled Essays on Business Cycle Volatility and Global Trade.

EDUCATION

Chloe Ruff, Assistant Professor of Education

Ph.D.	expected , Virginia Tech	2013
M.A.	Mary Baldwin College	2004
B.A.	University of Georgia	1998

From spring of 2011 through 2013, Professor Ruff was in a Graduate Assistantship in the Office of First-Year Experience at Virginia Tech, and prior to that she was a Teaching Assistant in Educational Psychology. Her dissertation is entitled First-Year College Students' Development of Interest in and Identification with Their Prospective Science Major.

ENGLISH

Sean Grattan, Visiting Assistant Professor of English (one-year appointment)

Ph.D.	City University of New York	2009
B.A.	Sarah Lawrence College	2000

Professor Grattan has taught as an Adjunct Assistant Professor at Queens College, City University of New York, since 2010. His teaching and research interests include Contemporary and Twentieth-Century American Literature, Gender and Sexuality Studies, and African American Literature. His dissertation is titled Crossing the Line: Kathy Acker, William S. Burroughs and the Politics of Piracy.

Kate Haffey, Visiting Assistant Professor of English and Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies (one-year appointment)

Ph.D.	University of Wisconsin	2010
M.A.	Marquette University	2004
B.S.	Ohio University	2002

For the past three years, Professor Haffey has held an appointment as Visiting Assistant Professor of English at John Carroll University where she's taught a variety of courses including Advanced Freshman Composition, Literature and Sexuality, Introduction to Queer Studies, and Major British Writers. Her dissertation is entitled Eddies in Time: Literary Modernism, Queer Temporality.

Emilia Phillips, Emerging Writer Lecturer in English (one-year appointment)

M.F.A.	Virginia Commonwealth University	2012
B.A.	University of Tennessee	2009

Professor Phillips was an Instructor of Creative Writing at Virginia Commonwealth University in 2012-13 and prior to that a Graduate Teaching Assistant. She was the recipient of the Editor's Choice for the 2012 Akron Poetry Prize for her book of poetry, Signalitics.

ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES

Andrew M. Wilson, Assistant Professor of Environmental Studies (tenure-track appointment)

Ph.D.	The Pennsylvania State University	2009
B.Sc.	Sheffield Hallam University/University of York, United Kingdom	1992

Professor Wilson has been at Gettysburg College in a visiting position since 2010 and was the successful candidate in the tenure-track search this year. Prior to coming to Gettysburg, he taught Landscape Ecology at Hood College and was a postdoctoral researcher for the U. S. Geological Survey in Patuxent, Maryland. The topic of his dissertation was Ecology.

GERMAN STUDIES

Juliane Petermann, Teaching Assistant (part-time appointment)

M.A.	expected University of Leipzig, Germany	2013
B.A.	University of Leipzig, Germany	2011

Ms. Petermann expects to complete her master's degree in September of 2013. Her work as the German Teaching Assistant includes supervision of the German Table, working in conversation groups, and working with the Director of the Language Resource Center.

Henning Wrage, Visiting Assistant Professor of German Studies (one-year appointment)

Ph.D.	Humboldt University, Berlin, Germany	2007
M.A.	Humboldt University, Berlin, Germany	2000

Professor Wrage was Visiting Assistant Professor of German at the University of West Georgia in 2012-13 and prior to that Visiting Assistant Professor of German at Haverford College. His dissertation is entitled Die Zeit der Kunst. Literatur Film und Fernsehen in der DDR der 1960er Jahre. Eine Kulturgeschichte in Beispielen

HEALTH SCIENCES

Lori Beth Dixon, Adjunct Associate Professor of Health Sciences (part-time appointment)

M.P.H.	University of California-Berkeley	1999
Ph.D.	Pennsylvania State University	1994
A.B.	Duke University	1987

Professor Dixon is Associate Professor and Director of the Public Health Nutrition Concentration in the Department of Nutrition, Food Studies and Public Health, The Steinhardt School of Culture, Education and Human Development at New York University. Her dissertation is entitled Diets of Hypercholesterolemic Children and the Relationship of Diet and Familial Characteristics to Change in Their Blood Lipids.

Thomas Little, Adjunct Instructor of Health Sciences (part-time appointment)

M.D.	Pennsylvania State University College of Medicine	1996
B.A.	University of Virginia	1989

Professor Little is in private practice with Wellspan Orthopedics. He taught at Gettysburg College in 2008 and is returning this year to teach sections of HS 318, Kinesiology.

HISTORY

Justus Harzok, Adjunct Assistant Professor of History (part-time appointment)

Ph.D.	University of Iowa	2009
M.A.	Shippensburg University	1999
B.A.	Shippensburg University	1997

Since 2008 Professor Harzok has been Visiting Assistant Professor of History at Shippensburg University where he taught courses such as Historical Foundation of Global Cultures and Thinking Historically in a Global Age. His dissertation is entitled Children of Chapaev: The Russian Civil War Cult and the Creation of Soviet Identity, 1918-1941.

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES, ARABIC

Ayesha Bakali, Resident Fellow in Arabic (part-time appointment)

M.A.	Duke University	2013
B.A.	Georgetown University	2008

Professor Bakali worked this summer at Middlebury College at Mills in Oakland, California teaching Elementary Arabic through the Middlebury Arabic language program. In 2009-10 she was a Fulbright Fellow in Salmiya, Kuwait.

ITALIAN STUDIES

Riccardo Chiaruttini, Visiting Assistant Professor of Italian Studies (one-year appointment)

Ph.D.	Indiana University at Bloomington	2008
M.A.	University of Virginia at Charlottesville	2000
M.A.	University of Udine, Udine, Italy	1995

Professor Chiaruttini returns to Gettysburg College after an absence of two years. He was a Visiting Lecturer and Associate Instructor at the University of Indiana while completing his doctoral studies. His dissertation is entitled Esilio, migrazione e frontier nella letteratura italiana contemporanea.

MANAGEMENT

Gerard Brandon, Visiting Assistant Professor of Management (one-year appointment)

Ph.D.	The Pennsylvania State University	1992
M.S.	The Pennsylvania State University	1984
B.A.	Franklin & Marshall College	1982

Professor Brandon was most recently the Assistant Executive Director for Human Resources at the Pennsylvania State Education Association. The title of his dissertation was A Test of Modified Discrepancy Theory: Understanding Compensation Satisfaction. While completing his master's degree at Penn State, he taught courses on Personnel Management, Organizational Theory, and Organizational Behavior.

Elyana Tarlow, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Management

J.D.	University of Baltimore	1984
B.S.	Temple University	1975

Professor Tarlow is a practicing Attorney with Smith, Gildea, & Schmidt in Towson, Maryland. She will be teaching a section of Business Law in the fall and a section of Law and Organizations in the spring.

MATHEMATICS

Abhinandan (Abi) Chowdhury, Visiting Assistant Professor of Mathematics (one-year appointment)

Ph.D.	University of Louisiana at Lafayette	2010
M.S.	University of Louisiana at Lafayette	2005
B.E.	National Institute of Technology, Rourkela, India	2002

Professor Chowdhury held a visiting appointment for the past two years at Delaware State University and prior to that was an Instructor at Western Illinois University. His dissertation title is Modeling the Microstructure of the Temperature Field and the Effective Properties of Heat Conduction through Polydisperse Spherical Suspensions.

Matthew Gerhart, Adjunct Instructor of Mathematics (part-time appointment)

M.S.	George Mason University	2011
M.A.Ed.	Virginia Tech	2005
B.S.	Virginia Tech	2004

Professor Gerhart is working on his Ph.D. at George Mason University and expects to complete it in 2015. He has taught Introductory Calculus and Linear Math Modeling (along with other courses) at George Mason University. His research is on Fluid Dynamics of Thin Films and Thin Porous Materials.

Frederick Nordai, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Mathematics (part-time appointment)

Ph.D.	Virginia Tech	1985
M.S.	University of Florida	1975
M.S.	Northern Illinois University	1972
B.S.	Shippensburg University	1970

Professor Nordai recently retired from Shippensburg University where he was Professor of Mathematics since 1986. He also served as Department Chair, a member of the Department Personnel Committee and the Teaching Education Committee.

PHILOSOPHY

Natalie Cisneros, Assistant Professor of Philosophy (tenure-track appointment)

Ph.D.	Vanderbilt University	2012
M.A.	Vanderbilt University	2012
B.A.	Seattle University	2005

Professor Cisneros's areas of specialization include Latin American Philosophy, Critical Philosophies of Race, and Feminist Philosophies. Her dissertation is entitled The Illegal Alien: a Genealogical and Intersectional Approach. Prior to her appointment at Gettysburg, she was Assistant Professor of Philosophy at Allegheny College.

PHYSICS

Kristen Burson, Visiting Assistant Professor of Physics (one-year appointment)

Ph.D.	expected , University of Maryland, College Park	2013
M.S.	University of Maryland, College Park	2011
B.A.	Gustavus Adolphus College	2008

The title of Professor Burson's dissertation is Surface Studies of Graphene and Graphene Substrates. In 2012-2013 she was a Lilly Teaching Fellow at the Center for Teaching Excellence where she collaborated with a cross-disciplinary team of graduate researchers to study student use of virtual and traditional office hours.

Ryan Johnson, Assistant Professor of Physics (tenure-track appointment)

Ph.D.	Dartmouth College	2011
B.S.	University of New Mexico	2001

Professor Johnson has been at Denison University since 2010 as Visiting Assistant Professor/CFD Fellow and prior to that he was a postdoctoral fellow at the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory at Harvard University. His dissertation is entitled The Nature of Core Gas Sloshing in Galaxy Clusters.

David Johnston, Visiting Assistant Professor of Physics (one-year appointment)

Ph.D.	expected , College of William and Mary	2013
M.S.	College of William and Mary	2008
B.S.	Binghamton University	2006

Professor Johnson expects to complete his Ph.D. this summer. His dissertation is on theoretical and plasma physics and his areas of interest are plasma physics, mathematical physics, Bayesian probability, and geometry and physics.

Brock Russell, Adjunct Instructor and Laboratory Instructor in Physics (part-time appointment)

Ph.D.	expected University of Maryland at College Park	2013
M.S.	University of Maryland at College Park	2012
B.S.	Gettysburg College	2008

Professor Russell returns to his alma mater for a second time, having taught the laboratory sections of Physics 103-104 in 2008-09. For the spring semester of the past year he was a Teaching and Research Assistant at University of Maryland, College Park while pursuing his doctoral studies.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

Nina Barzachka, Visiting Assistant Professor of Political Science (one-two year appointment)

Ph.D.	University of Virginia	2012
M.A.	University of Virginia	2007
B.A.	Roanoke College	2003

Prior to coming to Gettysburg, Professor Barzachka was a Visiting Assistant Professor at Mary Baldwin College where she taught courses on Comparative Politics, International Relations, and Democratization and Modern Politics in Eastern Europe. Her dissertation was titled Why Choose to Lose? Tactical Seat Loss and Electoral System Reform in Western and Eastern Europe.

Benjamin Melusky, Adjunct Instructor of Political Science (part-time appointment)

M.A.	University of Pittsburgh	2011
B.A.	Gettysburg College	2008

While continuing work on his Ph.D. from the University of Pittsburgh, Professor Melusky returns to his alma mater to teach part-time for the Political Science Department this year. His research interests include American Politics, State and Local Politics, Institutional Capacity, Voting Behavior, and Electoral Accountability.

PSYCHOLOGY

Erin Clark, Adjunct Instructor of Psychology (part-time appointment)

M.E.	Temple University, College of Education	2004
B.A.	Gettysburg College	1999

Professor Clark taught in the Gettysburg College Department of Education in 2005 and returns to her alma mater to teach courses in the Department of Psychology. She currently teaches at Harrisburg Area Community College and she taught previously at Mechanicsburg Area School District and Jane Addams Elementary School.

Charles Stangor, Adjunct Professor of Psychology (part-time appointment)

Ph.D.	New York University	1986
M.A.	New York University	1984
B.A.	Beloit College	1973

Professor Stangor is not new to Gettysburg College having taught in a part-time position several times in the past. He is Professor of Psychology at the University of Maryland and is the author of many articles in professional journals, several books, and the recipient of a number of grants from the National Science Foundation.

SPANISH

Maria (Lola) Fernandez Perez, Instructor of Spanish (one-year appointment)

Licentiate	University of Seville, Spain	1991
-------------------	------------------------------	------

Professor Fernandez is an English and Spanish teacher at Portaceli Jesuit School in Seville, Spain. She taught at Gettysburg College in 2001 and returns this year as the Spanish Department's native speaker.

SUNDERMAN CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

Elizabeth Eppers Asmus, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Music in the Sunderman Conservatory of Music (part-time appointment)

B. M.	The Juilliard School	1983
-------	----------------------	------

Professor Asmus is a harpist with several orchestras, including the York Symphony Orchestra and the Nittany Valley Orchestra; she is a guest soloist/accompanist with the Bucknell University Rooke Chapel Singers and the Harrisburg Singers. She has taught part-time at Elizabethtown College, Messiah College, and Dickinson College.

Elizabeth Ann Clare, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Music in the Sunderman Conservatory of Music (part-time appointment)

M.M.	University of Cincinnati College, Conservatory of Music	2006
B.M.	University of Texas at Austin	2004

Professor Clare's instrument is the bassoon and she plays with professional ensembles such as the Baltimore Lyric Opera, the Washington Concert Opera, the Arlington Philharmonic Orchestra, and the Capital Wind Symphony. She also served as Program Coordinator and AmeriCorps Volunteer for Everybody Wins! D.C.

Adam Cordle, Adjunct Instructor of Music in the Sunderman Conservatory of Music (part-time appointment)

M.M.	Eastman School of Music	2010
B.M.	Baldwin-Wallace College Conservatory of Music	2008

Professor Cordle is an Instructor in violin and viola at Bloomsburg University of Pennsylvania and a Lecturer in Strings at Mount St. Mary's College. He is the Founding Artistic and Executive Director of Southcentral Music Works. Professor Cordle has performed with the Gettysburg Chamber Orchestra, the Two Rivers Chambers Orchestra, and the Orchestra of the Southern Finger Lakes (among others).

Amanda Heim, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Music in the Sunderman Conservatory of Music (part-time appointment)

D.M.A.	University of North Carolina at Greensboro	2011
M.M.	University of North Carolina at Greensboro	2008
B.S.	Messiah College	2006

Professor Heim is an Adjunct Lecturer in Music at Messiah College and a Woodwind Instructor for the Shippensburg University Marching Band. Her professional performing experiences include the Roanoke Pops Orchestra, the Greensboro Symphony Orchestra, and the Charlotte Symphony Orchestra. The topic of her dissertation was Using Post-Tonal Analytical Techniques For a Better Performance of Ida Gotkovsky's "Quatuor de Saxophones."

Stacey Mastrian, Assistant Professor of Voice in the Sunderman Conservatory of Music (tenure-track appointment)

B.M.	The Catholic University of America	2000
M.M.	University of Maryland, College Park	2002
D.M.A.	University of Maryland, College Park	2007

Professor Mastrian is in her second year of appointment at Gettysburg College; she was a Visiting Assistant Professor in 2012-13 and was the successful candidate in this year's tenure-track search. Her dissertation project is Selected Vocal Works by Progressive Italian Composers of The Twentieth Century: The Confluence of Nationalism and Internationalism from The Eve of World War I through Post-World War II Reconstruction.

WOMEN, GENDER, AND SEXUALITY STUDIES

Catherine P. Batza, Assistant Professor of Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies (tenure-track appointment)

Ph.D.	University of Illinois at Chicago	2011
M.A.	Johns Hopkins University	2002
B.A.	Johns Hopkins University	2002

Professor Batza was Visiting Assistant Professor at Macalester College from 2012-2013 where she taught courses on topics such as “History of U.S. Feminism,” “Gender, Race, and Health in the Modern U.S.,” and “Sex in the City: Urban Sexualities in American History.” Her dissertation was Before AIDS: Gay and Lesbian Community Health in the 1970s.

ADMINISTRATIVE APPOINTMENTS

ACADEMIC DIVISION

Amy Lucadamo, Archivist, Special Collections and College Archives, Musselman Library

M.A.	Duquesne University	2001
B.A.	Gettysburg College	2000

Ms. Lucadamo has experience as an archivist in museums, the corporate world, and higher education, most recently at Wilson College in Chambersburg, PA. Her responsibilities include preserving and providing access to the College's historical records and manuscript collections.

Lindsey Arlington, Assistant Registrar

B.S.	University of Maryland, University College	2011
------	--	------

Ms. Arlington served as a Transfer Advisor at the University of Maryland, University College for the past four years. At Gettysburg, her primary responsibilities will include scheduling, registration, off-campus study approvals and transfer evaluations. Ms. Arlington will also be working with students, parents and administrators on matters related to the Office of the Registrar.

COLLEGE LIFE

AnJanette M. Doll, Siegfried Program Coordinator, Center for Career Development

B.A.	Ursinus College	1992
M.S.	Johns Hopkins University	2001
M.B.A.	University of Maryland, University College	2009

Previously, Ms. Doll consulted in the areas of human resources, strategic planning, and individual and organizational development. At Gettysburg, she will work as part of a team which supports the overall employer relations outreach program and will focus on the development of a new enhanced internship program that places students in entrepreneurial settings.

Michelle Huang, Staff Psychologist/Counselor

B.S.	Sam Houston State University	1992
M.A.	Sam Houston State University	1996
M.S.	Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine	2010
Psy.D.	Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine	2012

Recently, Dr. Huang earned her Doctor of Psychology degree from the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine. At Gettysburg, Dr. Huang is responsible for the provision of individual therapy to students, consultations to staff, faculty, parents and associated care providers and students as well as crisis intervention and educational outreach.

Keira S. Kant, Interim Associate Dean of College Life

B.A.	Gettysburg College	1995
M.Ed.	University of Virginia	2001

During the past year, Ms. Kant served as Director of Student Development and Enrollment Services/First Year Experience at the University of Central Florida. Prior to 2012, Ms. Kant was Director of Student Activities at Gettysburg College. We welcome her back to Gettysburg College. She is responsible for coordinating the “Charting Your Course” program for first- year students and manages student residential life.

Brad Lancaster, Director, International Student Services

B.A.	Westminster College	1995
M.A.	San Francisco State University	2011

Mr. Lancaster received an advanced certificate in Mandarin Chinese from the Taipei Language Institute and has served as Assistant Director of International Student and Scholar Services at the University of San Francisco. At Gettysburg, he is responsible for international student services.

S. Tucker Little, Interim Assistant Director, Experiential Education

B.A.	Gettysburg College	2013
------	--------------------	------

Mr. Little just completed his Bachelor of Arts degree at Gettysburg College. While a student here, he was very involved in the Experiential Education programs. As the Interim Assistant Director, Mr. Little supports the Office of Experiential Education programs.

Heather Thomas, AmeriCorps VISTA member, Center for Public Service

B.S.	Gettysburg College	2013
------	--------------------	------

In May, Ms. Thomas graduated from Gettysburg with a degree in Environmental Studies and Spanish Linguistics. As AmeriCorps VISTA member, she will work to increase low-income access to fresh fruits and vegetables, strengthen the constituency of stakeholders to increase the capacity of the Adams County Food Policy Council and support college-community activities focused on food security and local food systems.

DEVELOPMENT, ALUMNI, AND PARENT RELATIONS

Adrienne Clarke, Assistant Director, Donor Relations and Stewardship

M.Phil.	Trinity College, Dublin	2004
B.A.	Johns Hopkins University	2002

Ms. Clarke worked as the Assistant Director of Off-Campus Studies and taught Film Studies at Gettysburg College. She was also the Arts Administrator at Bryn Mawr College. In Donor Relations and Stewardship, Ms. Clarke's primary responsibility will be the planning and implementation of special events and programming.

Johnny W. Nelson, Assistant Director of Annual Giving, Student Programs

B.A.	Gettysburg College	2013
------	--------------------	------

Mr. Nelson oversees the student phonathon program, advises the senior class gift committee, and will serve as a key member of the student philanthropy committee. As a student, he majored in History and International Affairs, and was a recipient of a Mellon Summer Research grant in 2012. He also was a member of the men's tennis team and served as captain during his senior season.

Laura Runyan, Assistant Director, Foundation, Government and Faculty Grants

B.A.	Susquehanna University	2009
------	------------------------	------

Ms. Runyan most recently served as grant writer/special projects coordinator for the Pennsylvania Commission for Community Colleges. Prior to that, she was fiscal and contract monitor for York County. At Gettysburg, she is responsible for writing proposals and reports to foundations and government agencies, compiling grant applications, conducting research on foundation and government funding sources, and assisting with on-campus grants development activities.

ENROLLMENT AND EDUCATIONAL SERVICES

Andrew Close, Assistant Men's and Women's Swim Coach

B.A.	Gettysburg College	2012
------	--------------------	------

Mr. Close returns to Gettysburg following an eight-month stint with Suburban Swim Club in Newtown Square, Pa., helping to instruct swimmers from ages six through 18. He will be the Assistant Coach for both the Men's and Women's Swim Teams.

Wesley N. Speaks, Assistant Coach, Men's Lacrosse

M.A.	McDaniel College	2013
B.A.	Towson University	2003

Most recently, Coach Speaks was the Defensive Coordinator at McDaniel College. Coach Speaks will have a similar role at Gettysburg College as the Defensive Coordinator. Coach Speaks will also act as the Strength and Conditioning Coordinator, and Recruiting Coordinator for the Men's Lacrosse Team.

Jamie Yates, Director of Communications and Media Relations

B.A.	Shippensburg University	2007
------	-------------------------	------

As Director of Communications and Media Relations, Ms. Yates oversees the College's content and media strategy to enhance the College's visibility and academic reputation on a national scale. Prior to her work at Gettysburg, she served as the Director of Communications at the Pennsylvania Commission for Community Colleges.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Sterling Hallfors, Network Applications Programmer, IT Data Systems

B.S.	Gettysburg College	2013
------	--------------------	------

Mr. Hallfors' responsibilities include technically maintaining the Content Management System (CMS), the Advance Web application, the Document Management System, and providing support to other enterprise level applications in IT Data Systems.

Administrators Hired Before May 1, 2013 and Since Publication of this Directory. August 2012

Sally Abma, Assistant Softball Coach (as well as Laboratory Instructor in Chemistry)
Michael Baker, Assistant Director of Communications
Jamie Bowman, College Organist
Amanda Dugan, Assistant Director of Annual Giving
Abigail Kallin, Assistant Director of Admissions
Cameron Murray, Assistant Football Coach
Christopher Nevolo, Assistant Men's Basketball/Men's Golf Coach
Jonathan Stiles, Technical Director of Majestic Theatre and Adjunct Instructor of Theatre Arts
Crystal Vander Zee, Assistant Coach of Men/Women Cross Country/Track and Field
Ashley Walton, Assistant Volleyball Coach
Shawn Waybrant, Assistant Softball Coach

Promotions, Title Changes, Position Changes:

Natalie Barlett, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Psychology to Visiting Assistant Professor of Psychology (part-time to full-time position)

Duane Bernard, Visiting Assistant Professor of Management to Lecturer in Management

Kim Davidson, Associate Director, Center for Public Service to Director, Center for Public Service

Jim Duffy, Registrar to Associate Dean of College Life

Christopher Esgar, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Management to Visiting Assistant Professor of Management (part-time to full-time position)

Amy Young Evrard, Assistant Professor of Anthropology to Associate Professor of Anthropology

Jeffrey Foster, Associate Dean of College Life to Senior Associate Dean of College Life

Timothy Funk, Assistant Professor of Chemistry to Associate Professor of Chemistry

Beth Campbell Hetrick, Assistant Professor of Mathematics to Associate Professor of Mathematics

Steven Gimbel, Associate Professor of Philosophy to Professor of Philosophy

Benjamin Kennedy, Assistant Professor of Mathematics to Associate Professor of Mathematics

Matthew Kittelberger, Assistant Professor of Biology to Associate Professor of Biology

John Kovaleski, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Art & Art History to Visiting Assistant Professor of Art & Art History (part-time to full-time position)

William Lafferty, Assistant Dean of College Life/Director of Public Safety/Executive Director of Greek Organizations to Associate Dean of College Life and Executive Director of Public Safety

Jing Li, Assistant Professor of Asian Studies to Associate Professor of Asian Studies

Jennifer McCary, Director, Student Rights & Responsibilities to Assistant Dean of College Life and Director, Student Rights & Responsibilities

Russell McCutcheon, Assistant Professor of Music, Sunderman Conservatory to Associate Professor of Music, Sunderman Conservatory

Nadine Meyer, Assistant Professor of English to Associate Professor of English

Gretchen Natter, Director, Center for Public Service to Assistant Dean of College Life and Executive Director, Center for Public Service

Todd Neller, Associate Professor of Computer Science to Professor of Computer Science

Danielle Phillips, Associate Director, Residence Life to Interim Director, Residence Life

Brian Reese, Assistant Registrar to Registrar

Jeffrey Rioux, Immersion Projects Coordinator to Assistant Director, Center for Public Service

Christine Shanaberger, Assistant Director of Foundation, Government & Faculty Grants to Associate Director of Communication/Coordinator of Presidential Communication

Megan Sijapati, Assistant Professor of Religious Studies to Associate Professor of Religious Studies

Kimberly Spayd, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Mathematics to Visiting Assistant Professor of Mathematics (part-time to full-time position)

Jonathan Stiles, Technical Director of Majestic Theatre to Technical Director of Majestic Theatre and Adjunct Instructor of Theatre Arts

Nina Tarner, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Psychology to Visiting Assistant Professor of Psychology (part-time to full-time position)

Ryan Teitman, Emerging Writer/Lecturer in English to Adjunct Assistant Professor of English (fall semester)

Mark Warwick, Associate Professor of Art & Art History to Professor of Art & Art History

Please note: This document represents information provided as of August 22, 2013. While degrees may have been completed, ranks cannot be changed until proof of completion has been provided to the Provost's Office.

/bjh

8/22/13